SWEETEST HARMONY WITH REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

LEGISLATIVE AND COUNTY TICKET NAMED AMID UTMOST GOOD FEELING BY DELEGATIONS OF KAUAI CITIZENS

KNUDSEN NOT OPPOSED FOR THE SENATE

EVERYTHING WENT ALONG AS SMOOTH AS COULD BE AND FEELINGS WERE NOT INJURED—AN AMICABLE MEETING

Lihue, Kauai, Sept. 24.—The Republican County and District Conventions held their meeting at Lihue last Saturday with nearly a full attendance of the delegates from the different precincts only two being present by proxy. The meeting elected W. H. Rice Sr. as temporary chairman and F. Weber as temporary secretary, with J. M. Kaneakua as interpreter. A ten minutes recess was then taken while a committee consisting of one delegate from each precinct examined the credentials. They were all found to be in order, though a question was raised by Chas. B. Wilson as to T. Brandt's qualification to sit as a representative from the first precinct. The question was left to the convention at large, who seated him in due order.

The meeting then proceeded to elect its permanent officers and the result was that W. H. Rice, Sr., F. Weber and J. M. Kaneakua, who had been acting as temporary officers, were elected to remain as permanent ones. H. H. Brodie was chosen as vice chairman and A. T. McLaure as treasurer. Resolutions were passed for the appointment of committee on Order of Business, and Resolutions and Platform, consisting of five each. On the first of these the chairman appointed Messrs. Brodie, Gay, Kahoe, McLane and A. S. Wilcox, while the Platform Committee was made up of Messrs. Kinney, Mahu, McCarrison, Scott and Chas. Wilcox.

A recess was then taken while these committees got through with their work. This interval was made use of by the delegates to accept W. H. Rice's invitation to refresh the inner man in his laud. Mr. Rice, in fact the whole Rice family, seem to excel in the preparation of the regular luncheon, and this occasion only served to confirm their superiority in this line. It is unnecessary to state that all took advantage of Mr. Rice's generous hospitality, delegates, candidates and onlookers sitting down in the way lands and lions will do no more.

That this feast met with the undoubted approval of all is best shown by the unanimous adoption of the vote of thanks which was extended to Mr. Rice by the convention when it again was called to order a little after 1 o'clock. The Committee on Order of Business reported and had its report adopted by the convention. It contained among other things a clause that the voting should be done by ballots.

The Committee on Platform then reported and submitted a draft for the approval of the convention. This draft was unanimously adopted as the platform of the Republican party in the County of Kauai.

On motion of Mr. Conner it was decided to have the platform printed and to supply each of the candidates with a copy. The convention also decided to assess each of the candidates the sum of $2.50 in order to raise money for defraying the expenses incurred at this meeting.

Another resolution passed was that it should take a majority of all the votes cast to decide a nomination. It was also decided that, in absence of any primary law the County Committee take full charge of County Convention affairs, apportion all delegates, make call for primaries, set time for such meetings.

PLATFORM ADOPTED BY REPUBLICANS OF KAUAI

Following is the platform adopted by Kauai Republicans in County convention September 24: We, the Republicans of the County of Kauai, hereby renew our allegiance to the principles and tenets of the Republican party and to its policies as adopted by the Territorial Convention at Wailuku, Maui, on the 2nd inst.

We heartily endorse the success administration of public affairs by the Board of Supervisors of this County.

We pledge our support to Delegate Kaneakua.

We favor the opening of public lands.

We recommend and request of the Representatives and Senators that they work for the passage of the following laws:

That fifty per cent of all income taxes shall remain in the counties in which the tax is produced.

That the police shall act as trustant officers for the different schools.

That we pledge the legislators from this county to work for a law restoring teachers' salaries to the schedule occupied before the 29 per cent reduction.

We favor the Government ownership of sufficient wharves on Kauai to accommodate the public and pledge our legislative delegation to work for a law favoring the same.

That all dog taxes collected within each county shall remain in the county in which it is collected.

That the Legislature pass a primary election law.

That we favor the passage of a law by which money appropriated for the Public Works Department be segregated and given to each county in proportion to the taxes paid by the several counties. We the Committee on Platform and Resolutions beg to report the following:

K. W. KINNEY, Chairman,
R. SCOTT,
F. MAHN,
E. MCCARRISON,
C. H. WILCOX.

and whatever is to be done in such matters.

The convention then proceeded to nominate candidates for the several offices.

There had been some talk about a fight for the Senatorial seat, but when it came to nominate there appeared to be only one candidate in the field, namely, E. A. Knudsen, who consequently received the nomination.

There were five aspirants for Representative honors—C. A. Rice, J. I. Coney, W. J. Sheldon, J. I. Silva and Geo. H. Huddy, who received 46, 36, 40, 34 and 20 votes respectively. The four first ones having received the highest number of votes, were therefore declared nominated.

For the offices of County Sheriff, County Attorney, County Treasurer and County Clerk, there were only one applicant for each office and they were therefore given the nomination.

Three aspirants were in the field for the office of County Auditor and the chances seemed to be pretty evenly divided. On counting the ballots it was found that Olaf Omsted had received 27, Chas. Blake 13 and L. J. Mundon 6 votes; the former was therefore declared nominated, which nomination, on motion of Mr. Mundon, was made unanimous.

The Delegates from the several districts then went into District Conventions and Waimea nominated A. F. Knudsen for Supervisor and W. O. Crowell for Deputy Sheriff; Koloa selected W. D. McBryde and Henry Blake, Lihue H. D. Wishard and Wm. Ellis, Kawaihau W. Jarvis and S. W. Meheula for similar offices.

Hanalet reported to the convention at large that the delegates from that district had decided upon Jas. K. Lota for Deputy Sheriff. When it came to the Supervisorship it was found that Chas. Kahoe and Wm. P. Huddy had three votes each and that nobody was willing to yield. The delegates therefore asked that the votes of the whole convention settle the question of who should be the choice.

After the ballots had been counted it was found that Kahoe had received 23 and Huddy 21 votes, which result accordingly put the former candidate on the Republican ticket.

The selection of the County Committee, which shall consist of one of the delegates from each of the precincts, was made by the chairman and resulted in the following gentlemen being appointed: Nilahu, F. Brandt; Waiman, F. Olay; Makaweli, B. D. Baldwin; Wailawa, K. W. Kinney; Koloa, A. T. McLane; Lihue, E. Broadbent; Kealia, P. L. Toole; Kilauea, J. L. Edwards; Hanalet, Wm. Werner.

Looking over the list of nominees, Kauai may be satisfied with the work of the delegates, but now the thing is up to the voters to show at the election that they uphold the men they sent to the convention.—Garden Island.

NOTLEY EXPLAINS THOSE BLANK PLACES ON TICKET

HOME RULE CANDIDATE FOR DELEGATE DISCOURSES BEFORE ASSEMBLED HOSTS OF HIS PARTY AT LIHUE, KAUAI

HE SAYS IMMIGRATION TO HAWAII IS NEEDED

CANDIDATES WERE FEW AND FAR BETWEEN BUT THOSE NAMED WERE GRATEFUL TO THE CONVENTION FOR THE HONOR

Lihue, Kauai, Sept. 24.—The Independent Home Rule party on Kauai held their County Convention at Kapaia last Thursday. When the policy to be pursued was discussed and candidate nominated for some of the offices to be contested for in November.

At 10 o'clock the time set for the meeting, but few of the delegates had arrived but Chas. K. Notley, president of the Independent Home Rule party of Hawaii, called the meeting to order and made a short speech. During the latter information reached the meeting to the effect that the balance of the delegates had been delayed on the road but that they would arrive in the course of an hour or so. A motion to adjourn until 12 o'clock was submitted in order to give the whole county a chance to be represented.

Inthe interval of waiting President Notley entertained those present with a narrative of the doings of the Maui and Hawaii conventions and of the activity of the party in these two counties. He told them that on both of those islands it had been thought a good policy rather to leave blank places on the ticket than to fill them with weak men. There were good men on both sides of the fence, and though the rules of the party prevented it from endorsing a man who had not taken the oath to support it, there was nothing to hinder the members from voting for a good man on the Republican ticket if there was no Home Rule candidate in the field.

Just before midday Jas. K. Apollo brought the balance of the members to Kapaia. The thoughtful delegates had hired a big bus and with it had fetched those living far off and who else would hardly have attended the meeting.

It did not take long time for the delegates to get to work after they once had assembled.

The rules of the party make it obligatory on the President to open and conduct all conventions and for President Notley therefore took the chair and called the meeting to order.

After Mr. Kanao had been elected secretary of the convention the president stated that it had been convened for the purpose of selecting candidates from the midst of the party for the different Territorial and County offices, emphasizing again the advantage of rather leaving some of the positions uncontested than urging incapable men on the voters. He then declared nominations to be in order.

Usually there are a lot of aspirants on such occasions, but this seemed to be an exception. Candidates seemed uncertain and nominations came but slowly.

When at last no more names seemed to be forthcoming the nominations were declared closed and the following list adopted as embodying the men that the Home Rule party would endeavor to elect at the coming election:

Senator—J. K. Keolewa, Hanalet, Representatives—J. Moolik, Keka-ha; P. R. Puhl, Hanalet.

Supervisors—J. K. Apollo, Kawaihau; D. Kanealii, Hanalet.

Deputy Sheriff—Hanalet, S. Kane-wanui.

President Notley then addressed the convention and said that the first and principal endeavor of the party ought to be to get good and reliable men to represent the counties as well as their own officials as in the Legislature. The latter had a great work awaiting it. The land laws ought to be amended so as to give everybody a right to forty acres of good land.

Immigration would have to be encouraged as the present population was insufficient when it came to taking care of the canefields, which in the backbone of the country. He told his hearers not to listen to the nonsense that there were only two parties in the States and that they as a third would have no standing. There are four or five distinct parties on the mainland and all have come influence and gain for victories for its cause. Wanted the Home Rule party to fight for equal rights for all.

After the nominations were closed Mr. Kanealii addressed the meeting and thanked for the honor conferred upon him; he would endeavor to serve the people of his district and the county as a whole as well in the coming two years as he had done in the term about to expire.

Mr. Keolewa was also grateful to the

KAUAI CANDIDATES

These are the candidates nominated by the Republican Convention of Kauai. Vote for them on November 6th:
Senator—E. A. Knudsen.
Representatives—J. H. Coney, C. A. Rice, W. J. Sheldon, J. I. Silva.
County Sheriff—W. H. Rice, Jr.
County Attorney—S. K. Kaeo.
County Auditor—Olaf Omsted.
County Treasurer—A. H. Rice.
County Clerk—J. M. Kaneakua.
Supervisors—A. F. Knudsen, Waiman, W. D. McBryde, Koloa; W. D. Wishard, Lihue; W. Jarvis, Kawaihau; Chas. K. Kahoe, Hanalet.
Deputy Sheriffs—W. O. Crowell, Waiman; Henry Blake, Koloa; Wm. Ellis, Lihue; S. W. Meheula, Kawaihau; Chas. K. Lota, Hanalet.

convention for wanting him to be a senator and would try to show his appreciation by his work.

J. K. Apollo started in by begging the delegates not to believe the rumor that he was trying to oust R. Puuki from his place on the Board of Supervisors. The latter gentleman had fulfilled the duties of his office to the satisfaction of all and he couldn't think of doing such a thing.

Mr. Puuki had withdrawn voluntarily from the race, to confine himself to his duties as minister of the Anahola congregation, and he had not entered into the contest until this had been announced. His district had been stepmotherly treated, but he would try to remedy it in the future.

Jas. Mooki in thanking the convention for the distinction conferred upon him provided worthily to represent the people at the next session of the Legislature if he is elected. In spite of being an employee of one of the candidates for the senatorship he would show his loyalty to the party by working for the Home Rule candidate, Keolewa.

E. Kaneawani was the last of the grateful candidates to express his feelings to the convention.

R. Puuki then ended the County Convention of 1906 of his party with a prayer, and the delegates dispersed to enjoy the social part of the program.

Her Spinal Column Sewed And Cured

New York, Sept. 2.—In the virtual curing of Mrs. Elka Shuster, who has been rescued from the complete mental and physical paralysis following a double compound fracture of the spinal column, Bellevue physicians believe they have accomplished one of the most remarkable achievements of modern surgery.

When Mrs. Shuster was carried to the hospital, strapped to a plank, her back broken in four places as the result of a street car accident last February, the doctors declared she would be dead in three days. Her brain had been paralyzed and her body deprived of movement.

But Dr. Lucius Hotchkiss, the spine specialist, and Dr. Robert W. Carter of Bellevue determined to learn if an entirely new surgical operation would not at least prolong her life. They cut into the back, where the five broken vertebrae were found to be pressing upon and dislodging the spinal cord.

Baring the spinal cord the surgeons wrapped it in a covering of rubber sheets, sewed up the dura, cut the jagged ends off the vertebrae so that they would no longer press against the cord and then placed Mrs. Shuster in a plaster cast, through which they cut holes in order to treat the wound. Finally they placed the paralyzed woman upon a specially made bed of rubber, constructed upon the principle of a gigantic hot-water bag. She lay thus for seven months.

Yesterday the woman was taken from the bed and the plaster cast removed. She could speak and move her hands, body and legs.

"The idea of your being ashamed of that name!" he exclaimed. "Don't you know, sir, that Ralph Waldo Emerson was one of the greatest and best men this country ever produced?"

"Of course I know it! Didn't I say he was a great man? But if you were in my place how would you like to have people think, when they heard somebody calling you Ralph Waldo, 'Well, that's a mighty big name for a little, bald headed old livery stable keeper with a pair of cross eyes and a wart on his nose—and Swackhammer for his last name!'—Youth's Companion.

One of the small boys at a certain school where military drill is much esteemed has bow legs. The drill instructor liked to see things done smartly and was annoyed because this boy could not click his heels together like the rest at the word "shut!" The drill instructor, an ex-instantyman, stood this as long as he could, but at last lost patience altogether, and addressed the lad in a hoarse whisper, "Was you ever in the cavalry, sir?"—Manchester Guardian.
